Old Business

Nancy thinks that the series run of the German map books is just about complete and we might as well continue until the end.

New Business

The February program will be a video presentation by Mark Lowe about bringing down your brick walls. The March program will feature Joe Bott from the Dead Fred website. This will be a Saturday brunch meeting. The April meeting will be a video presentation by Lisa Alzo – Genealogy Clutter Boot Camp. Both of these videos will include handouts. There is no program scheduled yet for May – we may have a black sheep or show and tell meeting. June will be our semi-annual dinner, probably with barbeque. Nancy has reserved a room for Friday night and all day Saturday in case we don't want to have a night time lock in.

Robert Pulse has volunteered to do an organization program in November. We will consider his offer. Also, the UDC had a recent speaker who had authored a book about Honey Springs. This is a possible program for next year.

The FGS meeting will be in Springfield, Illinois this August. Nancy asked if anyone had an interest in going. Bill also mentioned that the society might help with the expense if we send a representative.

Linda will send a reminder to all members who have not yet paid their dues for 2016.

The meeting was adjourned at 6:30.
