* LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT *

Our Genealogy Day, co-sponsored with the Muskogee Public Library, was an outstanding success! Principal credit for this success goes to Myra Vanderpool Gormley, our main speaker. There were 144 attendants, plus those from our local society who contributed time and effort -- Sheri Siebold, Lillie Wiedel, Maxine Harris, John Higbee, Deone Penquite, and Roleen Bishop. In addition to Muskogee, there were participants from Ft. Gibson, Checotah, Sallisaw, Vinita, Okmulgee, Morris, McAlester, Haskell, Tahlequah, Tulsa, Glenpool, Broken Arrow, Sperry, Claremore, Chelsea, Wagoner, Coweta, Adair, Pryor, Chouteau, Locust Grove, Weleetka, Warner, Braggs, Okay, Stigler, and Hulbert, Okla...plus two with Missouri addresses. Many, when expressing appreciation for an outstanding program, said it was the best they had ever attended.

Our special thanks to the Muskogee Daily Phoenix, which ran a series of four articles; and to the Muskogee Library where reservations and applications were received, and reminders were always on display. Newspapers reached 55% of those who attended, various libraries reached 20%, genealogical societies reached 10.5%, another 10.5% were notified by a relative or friend, and the remaining 4% heard through other sources. The proceeds from this seminar will go to the purchase of books for the Grant Foreman Room. If you have any suggestions, please let us know. Once again, THANK YOU Mrs. Gormley for sharing your knowledge with us!!

* * *

Mary E. Rogers gave an excellent program at our June meeting on "Genealogy for Stay-at-Homes." Mary has written for forms used to request census records, Veterans records and ship passenger arrival records, and we now have a good supply for use by our members. They will be at our meetings.

* * *

Our program for September 24th will be a slide presentation of old Muskogee postcards by Barbara Higbee, wife of our Vice-President, John Higbee. She has an outstanding collection that will be of interest to everyone ...both those who remember Muskogee "how it was" and those who have only heard "how it was."

Virginia

[Editor's Note: a special thanks goes to Virginia, our president, who really hustled to get the advertising out about the Genealogy Day, and for the fine job of organizing...we as a society, salute you!]

★ I.T. FRATERNAL ORDERS ★

Many of our male ancestors belonged to fraternal orders, such as the Masons, Odd Fellows, Woodmen of the World, Knights of Pythias and the Grange. It was no different in Indian Territory.

The first Free Mason Lodge established in Indian Territory was began by the Cherokees in Tahlequah. The charter was issued from the Grand Lodge in Fort Smith, Arkansas, and called Cherokee Lodge No. 21 on Nov. 9, 1848. Both Indians and white men, who came into the territory as soldiers, merchants, teachers and missionaries, were participants. Officers and brethren of the Cherokee lodge for 1850 were:

N.B. DANNENBERG, W.M.
Joseph COODY, S.W.
W.S. ADAIR, J.W.
H.D. REESE, Secy.
David CARTER
J.W. WILLIAMS
C.R. GOURD
L. KEYES
G.W. ADAIR
W.P. ROSS
J.G. HARNAGE

J.M. LYNCH
John CANDY
T.J. PARKS
James DANIEL
G.W. LAVENDER
John S. VANN
M. TANENT
J. FOREMAN
E. ARCHER
Thomas BERTHOLF

The second Lodge was begun at Ft. Gibson, Nov. 5, 1850. Many of the members were army men stationed at the Fort.

The Creeks did not affiliate with the established lodges, although most of their leaders were Freemasons. Geo. W. STIDHAM and Ben MARSHALL, Creek leaders, were active in getting the charter for Muskogee Lodge #93 on Nov. 9, 1855, to be located at "the town of Creek Agency, State of Ark. and within three miles." Creek Agency being north of the present site of the city of Muskogee. Some early members were: Wm. WHITEFIELD, John BARNWELL, Goliath HAROD, Sam'l CHECOTE and Casuthe YARHOLA. The charter was evoked in 1867, to be reinstated after Muskogee became a town.

In 1894 the Muskogee Chapter moved to the "magnificent rooms in the Turner Building", but unfortunately, the February 1899 fire destroyed records, other valuables and paintings illustrating Indian life.

From the 1880, 1883 and 1885 Indian Territory Grand Lodge Reports we find these memorials to their dead members:

Muskogee Lodge #1 (Eufaula): W.F. BROWN, died -----
Rolly SCALES, died August 15, 1880
Joseph Mcd. COODY, Grand Master - a good man, a good mason, a good Christian, died November 19, 1882
Henry F. BUCKNER, Grand Orator, died December 3d, 1882
Rev. James MCHENRY, a Muskogee patriot & statesman died-----

Knights of Pythias

The Knights of Pythias was established at the close of the Civil War to reunite order between the North and South, and to heal the broken ties of fraternal love.

From the Official Journal of Proceedings, held at Shawnee, Oklahoma, April 30, 1907, we learn these memorials to their dead: (Muskogee was Phoenix #3, Webbers Falls - Stand Watie, and Ft. Gibson - George B. Shaw)

HERE & THERE

Battle of Honey Springs
July 17, 1863

Eti GRAYSON, a Creek boy at the time of the battle, later "told of watching from Chimney Mt. and seeing the smoke from cannons." The Confederates were camped near what later became known as "Pumkin Ridge."

Approximately 209 men were believed killed or wounded - 134 Confederates and 75 Union soldiers.

The bodies of the dead were buried pretty much where they fell. Some years later many, if not all, of them were removed to Ft. Gibson National Cemetery. The government moved only Union soldiers.

Hardy COLBERT, a local Choctaw freedman, was given the job of identifying the soldiers remains by their Union buttons, but guessed some Rebel bones were mixed with the Yankees in his wagon.

+++++

Sheboss Place in Hickman County, Tenn., is the traditional home of an Indian who had married a white woman. The picturesque name is derived from the fact that whenever asked anything, the Indian invariably replied, "She boss."

I.T. 1900 CENSUS TRIVIA

"Officially the census begins on June 1 (in Muskogee), as there aren't enough enumerators to make the entire round in one day, or many days following, all questions will be asked and answered with reference to that day. For instance, the enumerator may arrive at your house the 7th and find that you were married the 2nd of June. Down you go as a bachelor; your wife as a spinster living at the residence of her parents. The census won't recognize your marriage after June 1. Similiarly, you may be dead since the first of the month, but you will be put down as living. Should a baby be born after the 1st, the child is non-existent as far as the census goes." May 31, 1900 Musk. Weekly Phoenix

.....

The Indian Territory Census shows a gain of population since 1890. The 1890 population was 180,182. The 1900 Census shows a gain of 211,778. Musk. Weekly Phoenix December 1900.

First Stone Building in Ft. Gibson

It is quite a notable circumstance that the first stone building erected in Ft. Gibson by a private individual was put up, or is being put up by an Indian...Mr. William Hendricks, who is an old Cherokee settler. He has faith in the future of this town and shows it by erecting a fine stone building, 40X70.....Ft. Gibson Post (Musk. Weekly Phoenix Sept. 28, 1899)

HERMAN JOHNSON VANN

By Virginia Vann Perry

According to a Guion Miller application signed by him on November 24, 1906, Herman Johnson Vann was born September 8, 1852 in Delaware District, Cherokee Nation. His Indian name was Wa-la-loo. His father was William Vann, son of Rich Joe Vann, and his mother was Sabra Elizabeth Thompson, daughter of James Allen Thompson. History and family tradition relate his father was murdered in 1852. Not much is known of Herman's growing years, but he was living in Webbers Falls, Oklahoma with Vann relatives at an early age. He apparently received a good education because among his books was one "University Algebra" with the flyleaf noted: "H.J. Vann commenced this book Feb. the 8th, 1870, Cane Hill College". This college was just across the border in Arkansas. A family bible records he married Elizabeth Davis, daughter of Earl E. and Amanda Davis on January 25, 1876 at Briartown, I.T.

H.J. Vann is listed on page 52 of Canadian District 1880 Cherokee Census at the age of 27 as having 175 cattle, 75 hogs, 3 mules and 8 horses. In addition to being a full time owner/operator of a growing ranch business, he taught school in the Briartown-Porum area, later operated a general store and served as postmaster at Briartown. He served as Clerk of Canadian Dist., Cherokee Nation, in 1875, 1877, 1879, 1881, 1887; and Judge of the same district in 1891, 1893 and 1897. He was a very busy man...accepting public service whenever needed.

H. J. Vann died August 23, 1912, leaving a wife and eight children. One daughter, Daisy Vann Stacy is still living at Porum. Three granddaughters of H.J. Vann still live in the area: June Stacy Maxfield, of Porum; Jean Vann and Virginia Vann Perry of Muskogee.

QUINCY SCHOOL
Briartown/Porum Area

From the personal notebook of Herman J. VANN, teacher. The Attendance Chart and Spelling Class was for the period of March-June 1871 and Sept. 15, 1872. Some of his history notes were included, as well as this interesting "Words of Wisdom":

Golden Words

Don't Deceive
Be Humble
Love your country (and all the pretty gals)
Don't Smoke
Mind your own business
Make money and do good with it
Don't marry until you can support a wife (not then either)
He that in the world would be wise
Must take papers and advertise
Let your motto be virtue, faith, honesty & industry
Wisdom is better than soup.
