PRESIDENT'S LETTER

It's hard to believe that the year is almost half over. We've been very busy this spring and I'd like to bring you up to date on our activities. Our spring workshop was a big success thanks to the hard work of Dionne Penquite and her co-workers. The workshop took many hours to plan and organize and the workshop committee came through in flying colors. I encourage all members to participate in these workshops regardless of the knowledge you have of genealogy. I learn something new at each one that I attend.

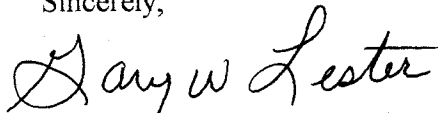

The board members of the Muskogee County Genealogical Society has approved a budge of eight hundred dollars to be used to purchase books and research material for the Grant Foreman room. At this writing, approximately four hundred dollars has not been obligated. If there are any books, cds, or other research material that you would like to see purchased for the Grant Foreman room please contact either Wally Waits or Deonne Penquite. They were appointed by the board members to procure the research materials and manage the budget.

A special congratulations goes out to Ms. Virginia Perry. Virginia has been appointed as a board member of the Muskogee Public Library. She is most deserving of this position. This appointment not only benefits the library but now the society will have a better line of communication with the library.

The society now has new publications available for purchase. Index of Obituaries and Deaths 1954-1992 Extracted From the Muskogee Daily Phoenix. This is a set of four volumes: Volume One contains surname letters A-D, 201 pages and 11,073 names. Volume two contains surname letters E-K, 203 pages and 11,086 names. Volume three contains surname letters L-R, 210 pages and 11,648 names. Volume four contains surname letters S-Z, 180 pages and 9,908 names. The price is $25.00 per volume plus $2.50 for postage and handling if you want the books mailed to you. For a cheap $2.00 fee, the society will send you a copy of any obituary listed in the books.

For those of you who haven't attended any meetings lately, you're missing out on some interesting speakers. Last month Mrs Candice Underwood of the Ft Gibson National Cemetery spoke to the society. She had some very interesting and informative things to say. For the May general meeting Ms. Annette Hixenbaugh will speak on Ireland and Scotland. She is an excellent speaker and I invite you all to attend. In closing, I want to thank all of the members who have worked so hard to make my job as President much easier.

Sincerely,

Gary W. Lester

WIFE WON'T COOK

Farmer Wants Divorce from Mate Who Refuses to Keep House

As a wife, Maggie Fortney is a minus quantity, according to Walter Fortney's charges in a divorce petition filed in district court yesterday.

Although the Fortneys lived on a farm and he was in the field all day, Maggie would neither keep house nor prepare the meals, the husband charges.

Finally when she was "fed up" on his cooking and country life in general, she deserted him and went to live with her relatives, the farmer charges in asking the court to grant him a divorce. - Muskogee Daily Phoenix - May 24, 1921.

WONDERFUL GROWTH OF NEW TOWN OF PORUM

When the history of this country is written, telling of the wonderful growth and development, the fortunes that have been made out of mother earth, the town of Porum, situated on the Midland Valley railroad, thirty miles south of Muskogee, will figure very prominently and will be reading matter passed from generation to generation. While only now a wee bit of a babe, the energy of its promoters and citizens promise it will soon make a long stride and will be counted as one of the leading cities of this section. Energy and capital combined, no matter how great, can not make a city without the aid of nature. In this respect, Porum is most fortunately situated, as it is in the most fertile country found in the United States, with coal in large quantities at its door, with the assurance of a county seat, located there, it will readily be seen that it is not in the power of man to retard its growth.

The business of this wonderful new city is now of such magnitude that it was found necessary a few days ago to organize a second bank (not bad for a baby town.) There are now more buildings in the course of erection than in any other town or city of its size in this section of the country. You could have bought real estate in Muskogee four or five years ago at your own price, see what it is worth today. Porum's values will advance as quickly. Don't wait until others have made three or four hundred per cent on their investments, and then buy, but attend the auction sale of lots Thursday. Invest a few hundred which will surely double itself in the next few months.

Muskogee Democrat, October 3, 1905, p. 3

PORUM FATHER LAYS CLAIM TO THE MOST UNIQUE PRIZE

S.F. Hall, a general storekeeper of Porum, is claimant for a unique prize. Hall has five children graduate from the high school and each one has been valedictorian. He claims that no other father can say the same in the state.

Vienna graduated in 1912 and is now teaching school; Fletcher finished in 1913 and is now in a bank; Ruby, who has married, graduated in 1915; Henry received his diploma in 1917 and is helping his father. and Margaret finished last Friday and headed the class as did her brothers and sisters.

Hall has four more children who are headed toward the high school and toward the honorary position of valedictorian.

"If they don't do as good as their other brothers and sisters," said Hall, "I'll spank them. They've got no right to break the record."

Posse in Pursuit of Porum Bandits North of Meeker

Trail of Holdup Men is Followed Easily but They Continue Speedy Flight
FACE VOLLEY OF SHOTS

Fired on by McIntosh Officers And by Postmaster; Get $3800 in Cash

SAY BANDITS' LOCATED - A telephone call from a deputy sheriff at Prague at 11 o'clock last night stated that V.S. Cannon, sheriff of Muskogee county, and Ery Kelley, former sheriff of McIntosh county, had followed the three bandits who robbed the bank at Porum yesterday morning to near Coffeyville, Kan., knew who the men were, and would have them in jail by morning. Their hiding place is known, it is said, and officers are closing in on them, to make the arrests.

Muskogee county officers, when last heard from last night, had driven north from Meeker, toward Tulsa, hot on the trail of three men who held up the American State Bank at Porum yesterday morning.

It was thought by Sheriff V.S. Cannon, leading the posse, that the bandits had headed for Tulsa and probably would go on through there possibly to Coffeyville, Kan. The posse planned to continue the chase until the three were captured or the trail lost.

Robbery Is Successful - The robbery, daringly but successfully executed, apparently was the work of experienced bank bandits.

About 10 o'clock two men, both plainly dressed and unmasked, entered the bank, while a third bandit remained outside in a Chevrolet car they had stolen in Shawnee, and kept the motor running. At the point of guns, they forced V.C. Mix, janitor, and three customers to lie face downward on the floor while Dyton Dunaway, cashier, complied with the command to put all the bank's cash, some $3800, into a canvas sack.

From his office, R.B. Patton, bank president, saw the bandits enter the bank and stage the robbery. He could easily have shot both of them, but he had never kept a pistol in his office. He slipped out a side door, and ran to a neighboring building to borrow a gun, but returned to find that the bandits had left, taking practically all of the bank's cash.

A posse was soon organized, and started after the bandit car, but was temporarily thrown off the trail when the trio drove through the residence district and out of town. As they were leaving the city, E.A. Plunkett, postmaster at Porum, took a pot-shot at them with a .32 caliber revolver when they passed the postoffice, but missed. They did not return his fire but sped out in the residence section where the trail was lost.

Speed Toward Checotah - Shortly afterward, a traveling man drove into town, and said that he had met the bandit car, traveling at a high speed, and headed for Checotah. According to his story the car was traveling at such speed that it narrowly missed turning over on the dirt road when he passed it. V.S. Cannon, sheriff of Muskogee county, had driven to Porum on business, and arrived shortly after the robbery. He immediately called John McQuillan, sheriff of McIntosh county at Eufaula, who arrived in Checotah just after the bandit car had passed through the town.

A race between the bandits and McQuillan and his car of officers followed, witnesses saying that both cars were going 75 miles an hour, the officers gaining. McQuillan caught up with the fugitives just west of Checotah, and engaged them in a gun battle, with the honors about even.

H.J. Qufall, former street commissioner here and now in the maintenance department of U.S. highway 266, was a witness to the battle.

In the exchange of lead, McQuillan shot the rear glass from the Chevrolet, while he received a bullet through the radiator of his car, a damage which probably accounted for his inability to keep up the chase.

Continuing their flight, the bandits drove toward Oklahoma City, where they were traced by Sheriff Cannon and Ery Kelly, former sheriff of McIntosh county who has built a statewide reputation for his ability to keep on a trail until he has "got his man." They drove to Meeker, a small town north of Shawnee, and then turned north. It is thought that they will drive through Tulsa, and toward Coffeyville, Kan., or else separate and hide in the Osage hills around Pawhuska.
